

Mission, vision y values

MISSION

Leadernet, multinational reference company with more than 25 years of experience in the installation and maintenance of control, telecommunications and monitoring systems; as well as in the installation of security services and access control in the renewable energy sector.

VISION

The vision of the company is continue being the communications company of reference in the renewable energy sector, adapting technology to offer new quality solutions, guiding our clients in the development of their business as a technological partner.

VALUES

The behavior patterns that will guide the actions of the people of the Company will be the following:

- Customer orientation: achieve excellence in customer service, trying to satisfy all their needs in time and form, generating a relationship of transparency and mutual trust.
- Propose the specific solutions that best adapt to the client's needs through the commitment to Innovation.
- Offer a Quality service based on agile and efficient production processes.
- Commitment with the targets achievement, teamwork, dynamism and initiative.
- Compliance with prevention, safety and environmental policies.

